

League of Women Voters Nonpartisan Voters Guide Guide to General Election—November 3, 2009

Pittsburgh School Director, District 1

(Vote for One)

Term: 4 years

Salary: None

Duties: The Board of School Directors has the responsibility to establish and equip, furnish and maintain a sufficient number of public schools to educate every person residing in the district attending public schools and to adopt a budget and levy and collect necessary taxes. It may establish and maintain schools for other age groups and for vocational and recreational purposes. The school district of the city of Pittsburgh includes Mount Oliver. In 2009, directors for odd numbered districts will be elected.

Question: How would you view your position as a school board member in relationship with the superintendent, particularly with respect to remaining school configuration concerns?

Democratic

Sharene Shealey,

No Reply

Republican

Sharene Shealey,

See Above

Pittsburgh School Director, District 3

(Vote for One)

Term: 4 years

Salary: None

Duties: The Board of School Directors has the responsibility to establish and equip, furnish and maintain a sufficient number of public schools to educate every person residing in the district attending public schools and to adopt a budget and levy and collect necessary taxes. It may establish and maintain schools for other age groups and for vocational and recreational purposes. The school district of the city of Pittsburgh includes Mount Oliver. In 2009, directors for odd numbered districts will be elected.

Question: How would you view your position as a school board member in relationship with the superintendent, particularly with respect to remaining school configuration concerns?

Democratic

Thomas Sumpter,

No Reply

Republican

No Candidate Filed

Pittsburgh School Director, District 5

(Vote for One)

Term: 4 years

Salary: None

Duties: The Board of School Directors has the responsibility to establish and equip, furnish and maintain a sufficient number of public schools to educate every person residing in the district attending public schools and to adopt a budget and levy and collect necessary taxes. It may establish and maintain schools for other age groups and for vocational and recreational purposes. The school district of the city of Pittsburgh includes Mount Oliver. In 2009, directors for odd numbered districts will be elected.

Question: How would you view your position as a school board member in relationship with the superintendent, particularly with respect to remaining school configuration concerns?

Democratic

Theresa Colaizzi,

No Reply

Republican

Theresa Colaizzi

See above

Pittsburgh School Director, District 7

(Vote for One)

Term: 4 years

Salary: None

Duties: The Board of School Directors has the responsibility to establish and equip, furnish and maintain a sufficient number of public schools to educate every person residing in the district attending public schools and to adopt a budget and levy and collect necessary taxes. It may establish and maintain schools for other age groups and for vocational and recreational purposes. The school district of the city of Pittsburgh includes Mount Oliver. In 2009, directors for odd numbered districts will be elected.

Question: How would you view your position as a school board member in relationship with the superintendent, particularly with respect to remaining school configuration concerns?

Democratic

Jean Fink,

No Reply

Republican

Jean Fink

See Above

Pittsburgh School Director, District 9

(Vote for One)

Term: 4 years

Salary: None

Duties: The Board of School Directors has the responsibility to establish and equip, furnish and maintain a sufficient number of public schools to educate every person residing in the district attending public schools and to adopt a budget and levy and collect necessary taxes. It may establish and maintain schools for other age groups and for vocational and recreational purposes. The school district of the city of Pittsburgh includes Mount Oliver. In 2009, directors for odd numbered districts will be elected.

Question: How would you view your position as a school board member in relationship with the superintendent, particularly with respect to remaining school configuration concerns?

Democratic

Floyd L. McCrea,

No Reply

Republican

Floyd L. McCrea

See above